IRISH IN HIGH SCHOOLS.

Novel Resolution Adopted by Boston Common Council.

At the meeting of the common council of Boston Mr. Grady offered resolutions which were adopted without debate. They were as follows:

Whereas, A large number of Irish-American citizens desire to and are studying the Irish language at a considerable expense to themselves, and

Whereas, The number of such persons studying the said language would be greatly increased if the opportunities were better, and

Resolved, That the city council, do hereby request the school committee to include in the curriculum of the day and evening high schools the study of the Irish language.

HINTS OF CHRISTMAS.

Novelties in Toys for the Festive Season.

The Christmas toys are already beginning to "line up" in the children's shops, says the New York Commercial Advertiser. The dolls are always a joy, no matter how old or how grown up a little girl may become. Dolls of all nations are a fad of the day, and they are used to teach history and geography, as well as to merely ornament the nursery. It is so much easier to remember that Africa is the country from which the doll with the brown face and the gay kerchief comes from than it is to find it on the map, and it is no effort at all to place Turkey and Russia if the doll with the fez is placed next to the doll with the boots and blouse before the lesson begins. One family of children, who have a devoted French governess, have learned French and English history in the most fascinating way imaginable. They have a collection of dolls for whom the governess had made paper mailla costumes to represent the different kings and queens. The children look upon their history lesson as a delightful game.

Mission furniture in miniature is one of the season's novelties in toys. The various pieces are very well made and look delightfully quaint in their diminutive shapes. Tufted leather armchairs for the ease loving persons of from one to six years are in evidence. Roll top desks are much in demand by school children, and they are to be had in all sizes, some of them only three feet high.

White enameled furniture, either for the pampered dolly or for the little girl herself, is daintily painted with roses, morning glories, daisies or violets. There are little chests of drawers, very convenient for the wardrobe of the favorite doll or for the ribbons, gloves, etc., of the dolly's mamma, and there are dressing tables with curved legs and swinging mirrors and coquettish desks with lots of pigeonholes and places for paper and crayons and the odds and ends with which children always fill a desk.

Another novelty shown for little girls is a toy sweeper, manufactured by the same people who make the big sweepers and exactly like the full grown ones.

A LONG- FELT WANT.

It is Supplied at Last in Barre.

Good-natured people are often irritable. If you knew the reason, you would not be surprised. Ever have itching piles? Not sick enough to go to bed; not well enough to be content.

The constant itching sensation. Hard to bear, harder to get relief. Spoils your temper, nearly drives you crazy.

Isn't relief and cure a long-felt want? You can have relief and cure if you will follow the advice of a local citizen.

F. S. Sandler (farmer) of West Topsham, says: "I was subject to itching hemorrhoids, commonly called piles, for a number of years despite the use of innumerable salves and ointments brought to my notice by friends and acquaintances and other sources of information. The itching, disease or complaint, turn it what you will, was often bad enough in the winter, but in hot weather the itching and annoyance was unendurable. I heard of Doan's Ointment and got a box at E. A. Brown's drug store in Barre. When it effectually stopped such an old and chronic case as mine, which had resisted every effort on my part to check it, let alone cure, I have often wondered what this remedy would do in the incipient stages of that far too common annoyance, piles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
